

Susan Winchester

June 15, 2015

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Cemetery Details

Good Springs Cemetery

Pleasant View, TN 37146

Tribute Wall

“ Crystal Cross Bouquet was purchased for the family of Susan Winchester.

June 16, 2015 at 02:59 PM

“ Rachel Your mom as you know was an inspiation to so many people as a loving disciple of our lord . She was precious to me and is now free of her pain and sufferig . Her blessings will continue to be with you and with your children all .the rest of your lives . My thoughts and prayers will be for you ,Marian , Toby and Marcia Love Uncle Bob

BOB AND JACKIE - June 16, 2015 at 01:38 PM

“ Rachel, I can't even put into words what your dear, sweet mother meant to me. Her humble spirit left an indelible mark on me, and I'm sure many others who were blessed by her friendship. Though we were cousins from birth, she really became a treasured friend in my young adult years, as I could always look to her consistent Christian character as a standard to model. I know that the next few days will be filled with many memories, and my prayer is that God will give you the peace needed for this season. My love to you, Tyler and the girls, and of course Aunt Marian, Uncle Toby and Marsha

Dan Andrews - June 16, 2015 at 11:32 AM

“ Secret Garden Basket was purchased for the family of Susan Winchester.

June 16, 2015 at 10:38 AM

“ I met Susan at the Baptist Student Union at MTSU. The Lord brought us together, and every time I was with Susan, Jesus shined through her sweet smile, cheery disposition, and very positive outlook. Through very tough times, loosing her husband and her younger daughter in car accidents, she remained strong in her Faith and her very close relationship with the Lord. Susan never complained about her circumstances or her battle with cancer. The last few years she was in much pain, but no one ever knew it. She kept her sweet smile and determination to stay active and be a light to the world. My last visit with Susan was 3 weeks ago. We had a wonderful visit, although she was very weak and in a lot of pain. I told her that I had never heard her say anything negative about anyone. She smiled and I told her how much we all love her. She said she loved us too. That visit was such a blessing to me. I love you Susan! I know you are in the arms of Jesus, J, and Hannah. My heart breaks for Rachel and your family who are hurting so right now-but we will all see you again. We will be together in Eternity.

Barbara Gibbs - June 15, 2015 at 09:01 PM

RB

“ I remember the day Susan and J. met. He asked me if I wanted to go to a singles day at Two Rivers Baptist Church in Nashville. He said he was tired of dating and was intent on finding somebody (to settle down with, i. e. marry). And it sure enough, his determination paid off this time. They met on the gym floor playing volleyball and apparently the rest was history. She made him an exception wife. They both were very natural about their faith in Jesus Christ and "put shoes" on their beliefs.

Randell Bracey - June 15, 2015 at 03:59 PM