“ I just wanted tonsay how awesome my Mom was. She was very caring, loving, and of course she was stubborn. She always took care of those around her. Making sure they had what they needed. But then she got sick and it became harder and harder for her do thr simplest things, like standing to do the dishes, or walking to the car. But now there is no more hurting or suffering, nothing but love and happiness. A time for her to celebrate and rejoice that she is with our Lord and family that has left us behind. I miss my mom dearly but I find peace in knowing she is no longer suffering!
