“ I was saddened to hear of Tana's passing. I married to Tana's first cousin, Tana Caggiano, in 1962 and have many happy memories of wonderful family meals and holiday gatherings in the Bronx, New York. Tana Fragale and Lou, sister Mary Lou, and their parents, Lucy and John , were all part of the large family that welcomed me. Through cousin Angela Macina, I was aware that Tana had relocated to Tennessee several years ago to be closer to family.

May the good Lord grant you eternal rest. Tana. And may your daughter and her family know that memories of Tana make me smile.

“ For my mom , Angela Macina, Tana's cousin. They spoke every other week until January when my mom was hospitalized for a month. We tried to find out what happened but had no luck. When she came home Tana's phone had been disconnected. We found out about her passing on 3/20/2021. My mom always told me how Tana was doing and some stories when they were kids. I remember aunt Lucy and uncle Johnny as well as Tana's son Anthony. Tana was fun and always welcomed us to their home in Jersey when I was a kid. In our prayers at this sad time.

What beautiful memories, Tana was a good friend and great neighbor! She's at peace with her loved ones that have gone before her.

“ We love you more than words grandma. We will always remember and cherish every great moment we had together from ants in the soup, building cardboard houses, bribery notes to take us to the mall, sleepovers, birthday cookie cakes you always hated, you and grandpa’s terrible driving, holidays together, long drives to PA (but always worth seeing you) and your great grandchildren running around and ruining your house....the memories are endless. We love you G, always and forever <3
