“ I may not be family but I'm one of her students from this year and she said she thought of us like children . Every day I go in her room I wish it would have never happened I will always remember her love of nautical items and literature. Praying for your family and friends. I will not forget her attitude: always positive. - Angelina Groves

“ Teresa and I worked together at the Stewart-Houston Times in Erin. I never thought that I could be the Editor; but with her unrelenting faith in me, we did it together. She was a special friend and coworker. I will never forget the late nights and long hours that we spent putting the paper together. When times were tough, she always smiled and would, simply say, "we can do it". We, always, did. Thanks for the great memories that we shared together. That was a very special time for me.
