“ What moves through us is a silence a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.

“ I will never forget him coming to my room nearly every afternoon begging for me to get him a coke from the teacher's lounge. He always had a smile for everyone. I feel numb by his loss. He was loved by many and will be missed dearly. I pray God puts his arms around his family to help them deal with this tragedy.

“ I am so very sorry for the loss of your songrandsonbrother. We don't always know what a person may be going through and why things happen. We just have to trust that God has a better plan for them in Heaven with him than here on earth. May God give you all strength and comfort and peace. May your Precious Memories put a smile on your faces and laughter in your hearts. PHDQ8PP
