“ Tom's infectious smile, quick wit, kind heart and positive attitude are the memories I have of him from high school. He was athletic and popular but always took the time to be considerate of others regardless of which clique they belonged. I have no doubt those traits carried over into adulthood as a husband & father. His family will be held in thoughts and prayers of all who had the honor to know him.

“ Tom is my cousin and way too young to be lost to his family. I remember him and his funny personality. Tom always had something to make you laugh. God Bless his family and we pray that the Lord helps them through this very difficult time. He will be missed and always remembered.
