“ Ed and my mom were such a great couple and brought out the very best in each other. The way they looked at each other and doted on each other was adorable. I don't think hardly a week went by in the 11 years they were together that Ed didn't send mom a dozen red roses. The last few years were tough on them but neither of them waived from trying to find the best in every day. Ed took such great care of mom up until the very end and her very last wish was that he was taken care of as well. Our future has changed drastically in the past 3 weeks having lost both Mom and Ed but it gives me peace knowing they are together again.

*Rest in peace Ed, you were truly a good man,

“ Ed married my mom 11 years ago this month. He was a wonderful husband and took such good care of her during her illness. She loved him dearly. I will be forever grateful and I am so blessed to have had him as part of our family. We will miss him very much. I am so glad neither of them are sick any longer and back together as they would have wanted. RIP Ed.

“ Eddie was a fantastic brother. I loved and respected him more than he knew, although I tried to tell him. His love for Carol, his family, his pets and Alabama football is well known. His service and support of this country and what it stands for was admirable. Watching his face during the National Anthem is something I will never forget, it was different than everyone else around us. He was so full of patriotism. It brings tears my eyes when I think about it.

RIP Eddie, you deserve it.
