“ Missing you terribly tonight pop. I just wished I could call you and hear your voice and bounce some ideas off of you. You never steered me in the wrong direction

“ I won't ever stop sharing memories of you Pop. I won't ever forget Christmas morning 2001 maybe the four of us loaded up Brandon Eric and Austin in his Chevy Chevelle candy red with black racing stripes and let my oldest brother out at a telephone pole on pleasant Grove road with a camcorder. In the video all you saw was my dad roasting the tires off this car in the distance black smoke rolling and as we pass by shifting thru gears me and Eric waving at the camera. We weren't going terribly fast maybe 60 or so but it felt like 160. He loved that car and so did I. He was just a fun dad like that. Bringing home a 4x4 in the winter time just to go around and help jerk people put of ditches that didn't have any business trying to drive in the snow. Just for fun.. once we had backed down possum trot road bc a bad storm was heading up hwy 76 and my dad knew we didn't have time to make it home. While sitting silent it was eerie and greenish color in the sky waiting for the worst my dad hears a tree snap and throws the blazer or Jimmy in drive and peels out of there right as a massive tree or tree limb fell in the exact spot we were sitting.it would have smashed us all It was so wild. Dad I miss you so very much. Some days idk what to do without you here. I hope to make some of the same type memories with your little britches. She misses you just as much. I could write memories all night but it just hurts my heart too much I Love you so very much - Cooter
