Tribute Wall

“ My heart breaks so bad that I'm having to do this. Im not ready and never will be . But in all honesty I knew you were ready to go home . I love you more than anything & you will forever be my only daddy . I love you and I just am having the hardest time ever accepting that your gone. Idk what to do with out you . I wish I could have said I love you one more time . You and Nancy mean the absolute world to me , and now me and her are left picking up the broken pieces that you left us to do. Forever in my heart 💜🕯️🙏💔

“ I remember Tim always trying to play with Tammy and myself. We didnt want jim.around he was a kids. Like we where a lot older. But he was a good friend usually we let him play. He was a good guy and he will be missed. But remember the good memories and they will help you a little more every day

Grief is a place you will move through at you own pace. Just know God is the for you all. As are you friends. Love you all. I will not be able to make the visitation or service but know my heart will be there.
