“ Tim was an incredible man who knew how to make everyone feel important, no one feel stupid and always seemed to make even the most mundane entertaining. He was an example to all of his colleagues at Lincoln and Osaic and such an amazing person to know. His impact will be missed so significantly it is hard to put it into words. I will pray for him and while unable to attend the service in person due to family conflict, I will attend Mass on the 25th and pray for him and his family, friends, clients and colleagues as they mourn his loss and think fondly of his amazing life and impact on the world. With Gratitude for his life and to God for His creation of Tim's humble soul.
