“ So sorry we won't be able to make it for the services. You all will be in hearts tomorrow. Tony was a great guy and I have lots of memories from our trips to West Virginia to see our cousins when we were kids. Tony, me and Ron would go exploring and Tony would always teach the "city boys" about country life. We didn't get to see much of each other over the years, but whenever we did it was always like old times.
