“ I have so many wonderful memories with TJ. And even more important conversations. I can honestly say knowing TJ changed my life. He was a great friend. And he will always have a special place in my heart.

“ I have so many good memories of Tony and my husband Shane coaching Dixie youth baseball in Linden, TN and Ethan and the ball team coming to swim and stay at our house with our son Colby. I was also Ethan's 3rd grade teacher, and I know how proud Tony was of his kids. Tony was always supportive and involved in youth sports and loved coaching. Many prayers for his kids and family.

*Our family has been deeply impacted by TJ...my grandson is fortunate enough to have called him "Coach"...my oldest granddaughter has had the privilege of being a SHOWSTOPPER teammate of Juliet...he played a significant role as patient teacher, compassionate leader, and unselfish role model for not only my grandkids but for all those with whom he came into contact.....I appreciate TJ's influence and concern....and love him dearly...
My prayers will continue for his precious family...*
