“ I met Tay back in 2011 because I was good friends with her sister-in-law Sarah when I remember most about Tay was how happy she was all the time and how much she loved to wear tie-dye and bare feet I also remember her love for Halloween and how much she loves sunflowers She was also a good mother and it was so dedicated to her kids to me she was an extraordinary person and that's how she will be remembered as extraordinary because she would not want to be remembered as anything less.

I did not know this wonderful daughter of Dewey and Dee, but I am sure she was a wonderful person, having such great parents. God bless and comfort the Edwards family through this period.
