“ My heart hurts to learn about Tracy's passing. I'm so very sorry for the pain of loss and grief you all must be feeling right now. Having gone to school with and known Tracy for many many years, the words that come to mind when I think of her are "PURE JOY!" I can still hear her laugh! It was such a contagious one. She was such a bright spot, always. I think of the lyrics of that old spiritual I've loved for so long, "In a that great gettin' up mornin' fare ye well, fare ye well." Until that DAY then...looking forward to seeing her again!! I know I will for she loved Jesus so much! And I do too. I pray for you all as you travel the road of grief. God will be your comfort, I know.

“ Tracy was always up for a good laugh. After Madison Academy, she and I worked together at Madison Campus Daycare for a while before I moved to Florida in early 90's. I have missed her ever since. My deepest sympathies to all who loved Tracy. Rest In Peace.

“ Tracy was a friend to everyone she met, bringing joy to many lives with her kindness and laughter. She was a special student at Madison Academy, and helped our family as a sitter for my children in the 80s. Later, we enjoyed being members at Boulevard Church, seeing each other every Sabbath. I pray for Tracy's family in this time of great sorrow. Have hope that Jesus will come again, and we will see precious Tracy in that happy land where there is no pain, no tears, no parting. Until then, Rest In Peace, sweet Tracy.
