“ Work with Tracy for about 10 years. She was one of the group that hung out together outside of work. Always so sweet and kind. We went on several business trips together and she was such a pleasure to travel with. A wonderful kind fun to be with person. I got to meet her Parents Mr and Mrs Carter. I know it broke their heart. God bless the entire family.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Carter Family and Mr. Lewis. Tracy and I among several were very good friends of the neighborhood in Vincennes, IN (Bruceville Rd/Hillcrest Rd kids) and Lincoln High School. She was always a very caring, wonderful friend and she will be missed by all of us. Rest in Peace my sweet friend.
