“ He was Amos's friend and there wasn't anything he wouldn't do for him! He was my electrician and I appreciated him. He financially helped us out one time and I'll never forget that because we really needed it. Thank you Troy for your friendship, you will be missed!

“ From the time of conception, we shared a unique bond. You loved the fact you were two minutes older than me and because of that, I was always your "baby sister". Growing up, you would not find one without the other and the trouble we would get ourselves into have become some of my fondest memories; like our Super Twin powers that we would pretend to activate and use for the sake of being mean, or riding our horses and pretending we were The Lone Ranger, cowboys and indians, or just whatever we invented . We have always had our ups and downs, but no matter what, we always knew we could count on one another. You knew I was the one person that saw through you, and I was the one that'd put you in your place in a heartbeat. Of course, you'd grin that stupid grin and say, "I know baby sister, but you don't have to worry about me." I knew something was wrong Wednesday, because something told me to call around 9:27 your time. They say a twin knows, and they are right. I wish I could activate those Super Twin powers and bring you back. I miss you and will always love you. You have real super powers now Cowboy. Love your baby sister.

“ My heart is broken with this news today! I just saw Troy about a month ago and we laughed like we were kids again. He was shocked that the only number I ever remembered after 25yrs was his mom's number and he promised that he would still answer if I was ever in trouble, just like the old days. What a blessing that I got to see his face. Sending love, prayers, and strength to your whole family. Troy was an amazing friend and the only real cowboy I ever knew. Fly high Troy Ford you will be missed.
