“ Unfortunately, I do not have any many memories from childhood of Uncle Van and Aunt Pauline but I do remember seeing all their pictures in the albums at Grandma's house. I got to know them much better as an adult as our family began having family reunions and I started bring my own children to their house for visits. I adore his family and pray for their comfort. Uncle Van will be greatly missed.

“ I really enjoyed our summer visits there in Nashville with Uncle Van, Aunt Pauline, Cathy, and David. I remember that big station wagon riding around with all the cousins in the back, making home made ice cream on the back porch...good times, I'll never forget them.

“ I remember always loving to go to Uncle Van and Aunt Pauline's house to visit. Many times all the kids would climb in the back of the station wagon and we would all go sightseeing. I remember Uncle Van taking us to the Hermitage, the Parthenon, Opryland, and the Opryland Hotel conservatory. I love those times.

“ My uncle was a good man and it really saddens me that another piece of my life that i never really got to know is now gone. I'm sorry i missed the opportunity and took time for granted with all of my family, i can only imagine the things you could've told me about the family i never really knew. Rest well and know you will be missed dearly.

“ Having moved from Florida, I met Van and Pauline in early 2014 at Joelton Church of Christ. I spoke with Van and his good buddy (Ottis Beard) most every Sunday morning. We shared updates on our week and he always would smile and chuckle at my remarks. I will miss Van and his pleasant and quiet-like personality; but know, he's where we all desire to be...with our heavenly Father. Mary and I loved Van, as we do love Pauline. We pray God's comfort and peace on Pauline and her family.

“ I have such fond memories of Van. At times, his place in Nashville seemed like a sanctuary to me. I remember him making us spoon rings and swords when we were little. Pelting pell mell up the stairs to David and Cathy's part of the house. I will miss you.

“ My Uncle Van was a great man that I will always love dearly. I will always have great memories of him. My family and I would go visit and we would always sit outside and have great laughs and he was always chewing his gum. Him and my dad are brothers. They were together her on earth and now they are joined once again together in heaven. The last time I got to see him was 7 months ago at my dads funeral. He was the same sweet man as always. I will always love my uncles dearly. He is much better now I know. May he rest in peace along with his loved ones and rejoice everyday with our saviour. Love always, Lisa Young Robertson
