“ To the family of Vernon Wilson Woodard, Jr., Please accept our sincere condolence and wish that the wonderful memories may sustain you in this difficult time. Heaven is a much brighter place today. We were neighbors of the Woodard family in the Hillcrest community in Kingsport, many years ago. We were children together. This note is from the three Rhea children, kids of Elmer and Virginia Rhea. “ So sorry for the missing of Vernon (Doc) as I knew him. We go back many, many years and have spent much time together thru our early and late years. He was a dear friend, and I will miss him. We children grew-up together, and the Woodard's are all special, wonderful people. To all the family, hello, take care. Someday we will all join together again. Ronald Blanton

“ I have the fondest memory's of my stepfather. He was a wonderful grandfather to my children and they came to love him dearly as did his great grandchildren. I will never forget him. Some may call him step father. I would like to call him dad. I know your're watching over us and I love you! ~Kim
