Tribute Wall

“ So glad we had the opportunity to drive you to my brothers last Christmas, we took back roads and your excitement in seeing all the blow up Santa Clause, Reindeer, and lights was a blessing and a memory I will remember forever. That kid like sparkle and genuine happiness sparked a fun conversation and completely wiped away any negative energy with pure joy. You were a good steward for the Lord and I look forward to joining you in Heaven one day. God bless.

How blessed I've been to be your friend. I always loved to see you smile and the talks we shared when I was fortunate enough to give you a ride around town. You always had a kind word and were quick to offer a prayer to brighten my day. You're truly one of the kindest men I've ever known. I'll remember you always and do my best to stay out of the doghouse. I love you buddy. Rest easy in your heavenly mansion my friend.
