“ *Some times you never know when or where you going to meet a real true friend in this world.
I live in Texas and had came up to Nashville in 2007 to do a plumbing job at a Sams Club.
To save a long story.
I will never forget that i had only been in town 2-3 days and some how I was invited to his 73rd Bday party.*

This is when i meet my true friend Mr Walter. After finishing job and coming back home to Texas we called each other on phone once a month if we could. I'm going to miss our talks on phone my friend. I will always checking the weather to let you know if it was going rain there 2days after it rained here.
