“ A devoted son, a loyal soldier, a true husband, a trusted brother, always a loving father, grandfather, great grandfather, a good friend to all, a beloved uncle. These words fall short of who You really were , Thank you Uncle Bill for your silent ways you lead us in your walk through this life at home , work , in good times and in those of sadness. Let your strengths be not in vain, but continue to guide us in the days ahead for all of us.

Well said!!! Bill was a good, kind man who was one of our favorite people at Bethlehem Baptist Church. He had a kindness about him that showed through in his smile.
