“ I will always remember Kevin as a person with a deep appreciation for life and the people he was around. I will miss not having him around for our mission trips, and church services and get togethers. Kevin holds a special place in my heart. I grew to love this guy like a brother. I know he's in a better place an in no pain. Love and miss you my brother in Christ.

“ I already miss you so much! You were an amazing Big Brother. You always went above and beyond and showed everyone who was blessed with your presence what grace, love and humbleness is all about. Everyone knew that God, Holli and Family (and UK basketball) ALWAYS came first, no matter what. I have comfort knowing that you are no longer suffering in pain and reunited with our loved ones who are no longer with us. See you soon.....

Kevin's life has really just begun. As a born again believer in Jesus Christ he's getting the magnificent grand tour of his eternal heavenly home we all long for. He was a good and faithful servant. A good man & friend to so many, a good son, good brother, nephew & uncle to his family. Our prayers are with all who love him that are left behind.

Holli, I am so sorry you lost the love of your life. Kevin loved you more than words could say! You could tell it by watching him; watching you. Millie, Kevin was a devoted son and I know you already miss those daily calls. You raised a son with a beautiful, giving and loving heart. He gave himself to all those he was around. Alan and Angie, I cannot even imagine losing one of my siblings. Praying for the Holy Spirit to comfort and undergird you all as only He can. We love you all and count it an enormous gift to have know Kevin. Rest easy Kevin- enjoy your new body and your new home- see you one day soon!

I only talked with Kevin a couple of times, but he was a nice guy--and I could tell in just those brief encounters, he was absolutely devoted to Holli.
