“ *Dear Matthew and Tiffanie,
Wyatt loved super-heroes, and rightfully so, for HE was a super-hero himself. He fought the toughest battle of his little life bravely and courageously. I lay awake the night of his death, thinking about that sweet little smile, and those sparkling eyes of his. I thought of how he loved to growl at me, and suddenly I realized exactly what he was doing! In true Spider-man fashion, he was throwing out his web of love, and capturing my heart! I am so thankful for the opportunity you allowed me in caring for this special, precious child. Someone once said, some people come into your life briefly, leaving footprints on your heart forever. So it is with Wyatt. His footprints shall remain in my heart all the days of my life. Please know that I am praying for you.
Love, Ms Sandy*

“ Dear family, We have been praying for you all and will continue. Your precious son has touched so many lives. I am Delana Lindsey's sister, and our entire family and many of our friends have fallen in love with Wyatt and prayed for him unceasingly. We are continuing that prayer effort for your family now. What a precious boy!
